Introduction

Welcome to V19 Art Gallery!

Vladimir Rozman is an artist who transcends the boundaries of traditional painting, infusing every brushstroke with passion, energy, and a deep story. His journey began spontaneously, but the overwhelming response from the audience inspired him to share his art with the world. Each of his paintings carries a unique essence—not only visually but emotionally and philanthropically.

He believes that art has the power to change the world, making his mission about more than just creation—it's about contributing to a better tomorrow. He is building recognition while staying true to his vision: art without compromise, created with heart for future of our children.

His works are more than paintings—they are an investment in values, sustainability, and the future.

Objectives

V19

"Echoes of Freedom" captures the vastness of the sea, the endless sky, and the untamed spirit of nature. The scene is a delicate balance between serenity and movement—gentle waves reflecting the sky, while seagulls soar effortlessly above, carried by the wind. Each brushstroke conveys a sense of openness and liberation, inviting the viewer to step into the moment and feel the vast horizon stretching beyond sight.
